GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS
APPLYING TO ELECTRIC SERVICE (continued)

2. APPLICATION FOR SERVICE AND AGREEMENTS

2.01 APPLICATION FOR SERVICE:

(A) A customer applying for electric service shall, if requested by the Company, furnish sufficient information on the size and characteristics of the load and the location of the premises to be served and such additional information as to enable the Company to designate the class or classes of electric service it will supply to the Customer and the conditions under which they will be supplied. A separate application shall be made for each class of electric service to a Customer at each premises of the Customer.

(B) Upon application for electric service to a construction site, the Company shall deliver to the applicant a copy of this Rule 2.01 (B) governing the construction of new residential dwellings and new commercial buildings, and the applicant shall acknowledge, on a form provided by the Company, that he has received such copy and will bring the same to the attention of the Builder. Upon completion of the new residential dwelling or new commercial building, the initial occupant ("Customer") shall supply a certificate with supporting statements from the Architect and Builder, if either or both were employed in the design and construction of the new residential dwelling or new commercial building, stating that the new residential dwelling or new commercial building has been built in compliance with the standards set forth below. The Company shall not be obligated to provide permanent electric service to the Customer unless and until such certificate has been supplied to the Company. The standards specified herein shall be effective on and after November 1, 1979, for all initial service to be provided to new residential dwellings and new commercial buildings for which foundations have not been completed on or before November 1, 1979.

(1) A new residential dwelling must be equipped with storm windows and storm doors or other satisfactory window and door thermal treatment. Total heat loss, based on the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration and Air-Conditioning Engineers ("ASHRAE") Handbook of Fundamentals, 1972 Edition, of a new residential dwelling per square foot of floor area of heated finished living space, shall not exceed 35 BTUs per square foot per hour at a design temperature differential of 80 degrees Fahrenheit with a maximum of 1-1/2 air changes per hour. Any installed air conditioning system shall have an energy efficiency ratio of 8.0 BTUs/hour (effective until October 31, 1980) or more of heat rejection per watt of input based on American Refrigeration Institute ("ARI") Standards. A heat pump system in the air conditioning mode shall have an energy efficiency ratio of 7.5 BTUs/hour (effective until October 31, 1980) or more of heat rejection per watt of input based on ARI Standards.

(2) New commercial buildings must be constructed to limit heat transmission loss, based on the ASHRAE Handbook of Fundamentals, 1972 Edition, per square foot of floor area of heated space, to no more than 35 BTUs per square foot per hour at a design temperature differential of 80 degrees Fahrenheit. Any installed air conditioning system shall have an energy efficiency ratio of 8.0 BTUs/hour (effective until October 31, 1980) or more of heat rejection per watt of input based on ARI Standards. A heat pump system in the air conditioning mode shall have an energy efficiency ratio of 7.5 BTUs/hour (effective until October 31, 1980) or more of heat rejection per watt of input based on ARI Standards.

2. APPLICATION FOR SERVICE AND AGREEMENTS (continued)

2.02 SERVICE AGREEMENTS:

(A) PROVISIONS: Electric service will be supplied to the Customer under the provisions of the Customer's service agreement which shall also include the provisions of (a) the Company's applicable rate schedule, rules and regulations in effect and on file with the Commission, (b) the Commission's applicable rules and general orders, (c) any special contract with the Customer, and (d) the standards adopted by the Commission in its Order in Docket No. 114,337-U, as the same may be amended from time to time, which standards are incorporated herein. With respect to (d) above, to the extent that any of the Company's General Rules and Regulations Applying to Electric Service are in conflict with such Commission standards, the provisions of the latter shall be deemed controlling. The taking of electric service by a Customer will constitute acceptance of, and an agreement to be bound by, all such provisions. The Company may require all or any portion of the Customer's service agreement to be executed in writing on a form furnished by the Company. A record of oral service requests must be kept on file by the Company for four (4) months. All customers requesting service orally shall be given the name of the Company representative receiving the service request and a confirmation code.

(B) MODIFICATIONS: A service agreement shall be subject to modification, and shall be deemed modified, from time to time during the term thereof in accordance with all applicable changes in the Company's rate schedules, rules and regulations, and the Commission's general orders, as authorized by law.

(C) TERM: Normally, all service agreements, except those under which the applicable rate schedule expressly permits a shorter term, shall be effective for a minimum initial term of one year from the date electric service commences (unless terminated by mutual agreement of the Customer and the Company) and after the initial term shall continue from month to month until terminated by the Customer; provided that any Customer supplied electric service under the Residence Service rate schedules may terminate such electric service at any time upon notice to the Company, except that any such termination shall not relieve the Customer of any minimum bills under Rule 8.01(B) hereof.

(D) UNUSUAL LOADS: When the Customer's load requirements are unusually large, or otherwise necessitate a substantial investment by the Company special or additional equipment or facilities to serve the Customer requirements, the Company may require the service agreement to be for an initial term of more than one year. Upon termination or cancellation, the Company may require payment by the Customer of such secured or unsecured charges and amounts (which may be required to be deposited before construction of such equipment or facilities) as may be necessary to protect the investment of the Company.

(E) CUSTOMER INSOLVENCY: A service agreement shall, at the option of the Company, cease and terminate and all amounts due the Company thereunder shall become immediately payable without further notice in case any act of bankruptcy is made by the Customer, or any petition in bankruptcy, either voluntary or involuntary, is filed by or against the Customer.

(F) SUCCESSION AND ASSIGNMENT: A service agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Customer's successors by operation of law but shall not be assignable voluntarily by the Customer.

(G) AUTHORITY: No representative, agent or employee of the Company, except a corporate officer, shall have authority to amend, alter, waive or change any of the Company's rules and regulations or otherwise bind the Company by promises or representations.

(H) WAIVER BY COMPANY: Waiver by the Company with respect to any default by a Customer in complying with the provisions of his service agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver with respect to any other or subsequent default by such Customer.

(I) WAIVER BY COMMISSION: The Company reserves the right to request waiver by the Commission in individual cases of any standards adopted by the Commission if it deems the standard(s) would not serve the interests of either the Company or the Customer.

2.03 TEMPORARY ELECTRIC SERVICE:

The Customer shall pay to the Company the Company's estimated cost of connecting and disconnecting its facilities to supply temporary electric service. A temporary electric service installation may include any required overhead or underground extensions of primary and secondary lines, transformers, underground or overhead service conductors and metering equipment. The Company may require payment of such amount in advance. Temporary service will be made available to carnivals, fairs and circuses, and for construction purposes, and other temporary or transient businesses.
